There are very few documents on that present rock artists at the zenith of their career and even fewer that cast a light on the beginning.

The triumphant performance at the Grugahalle Essen in April 1983 ended Jackson's most successful period. The 60's Motown medley of the show - „Tears of a Clown“, „Uptight“, „Heatwave“ - was presented a quarter of a century before everybody (and Phil Collins) dabbled at this great heritage.

The concert at the Grugahalle in Essen was recorded on 24 Tracks and is, completely new mixed, now available on a special high-class Double-Vinyl for the very first time!
